

Pregnant Women

- 1 About how long can symptoms from a pertussis infection last?
- 2 weeks
 - 1 month
 - 2 months
 - 3 to 4 months
- 2 Pregnant women are _____ times more likely to suffer complications from an infection with influenza than women of the same age who are not pregnant.
- 2
 - 4
 - 7
 - 10
- 3 Which two organs are particularly stressed during pregnancy?
- Liver and Kidneys
 - Heart and Brain
 - Lungs and Kidneys
 - Heart and Lungs
- 4 What is the source of antibodies found in newborn babies?
- Maternal antibodies that crossed the placenta before birth
 - Maternal antibodies delivered in breast milk
 - Neither
 - Both

- 5 What Academy Award nominated actress had a daughter with birth defects caused by congenital rubella syndrome (CRS)?
- Meryl Streep
 - Gene Tierney
 - Susan Sarandon
 - Gwyneth Paltrow
- 6 Which vaccines should pregnant women avoid?
- Killed viral
 - Conjugate
 - Live, "weakened" viral
 - Recombinant
- 7 Why are pregnant women suggested to get influenza vaccine?
- To protect the baby
 - To protect themselves
 - Neither
 - Both
- 8 When are pregnant women recommended to receive Tdap vaccine?
- Any time during each pregnancy
 - After 12 weeks of gestation during each pregnancy
 - Between 27 and 36 weeks of gestation during each pregnancy
 - Any time during first pregnancy
9. Which type of vaccines should those who live in the home of a pregnant woman avoid?
- Live, "weakened" viral vaccines
 - Recombinant vaccines
 - Killed viral vaccines
 - None of the above
- 10 Why are young infants particularly susceptible to complications from pertussis?
- Heart rate increases dangerously from pertussis
 - Lack of sleep from coughing spells makes them weak
 - The narrow windpipe makes breathing difficult during coughing spells
 - All of the above